

Maven

TRADING APPLICATION SUPPORT ENGINEER

Employer: Maven Securities Holding Ltd

Permanent full-time role based in London

Remuneration: £30,000 to £55,000 annual base salary depending on experience, plus discretionary bonus

Founded in 2011, the Maven organisation engages in proprietary trading & market making activities across global financial markets. Its offices are based near Liverpool St Station in central London and the organisation has over 45 employees. Due to organisational growth and planned future expansion, two Trading Application Support Engineer roles have been created. These roles will report into the Head of Information Technology and will entail rostered hours around European and U.S. market trading.

ROLE SPECIFICATION:

- Support desktop applications;
- Deploy application updates;
- Pro-active monitoring of applications & server; &
- Create & fine-tune monitoring scripts.

CANDIDATE SPECIFICATION:

- Trading application knowledge;
- Desktop knowledge;
- Basic network knowledge;
- Basic scripting knowledge in Python, VBscript and/or Bash;
- European exchange knowledge (eg. Eurex, ICE, Euronext, Xetra, LSE);
- Experience supporting Bloomberg and Microsoft Excel;
- Backoffice & frontoffice knowledge ;
- Experience in engaging with stakeholders across a business and effectively communicating with senior management ; &
- Experience in a proprietary trading house and good knowledge of equities and exchange traded derivatives transaction life-cycles desirable.

To apply for this role, please send your CV and cover letter to hr@mavensecurities.com.